

NYC

INNER CITY SUBMERSION

DATES: MARCH 15 – 22, 2024

The Location

The “tired, poor, and huddled masses” that immigrated through Ellis Island 100+ years ago have grown into more than 8 million people living in only 309 square miles. Rich and poor. Business people and the homeless. Drug addicts and at-risk kids. During your week-long mission trip, RIM will guide you through all 5 boroughs and challenge you to boldly share your faith with all kinds of people. Lost in the masses, New Yorkers feel alone and insignificant. Join the team and connect with those lost in the crowd. Introduce them to a God who notices them and genuinely cares!

This week may include:

- Building relationships with inner-city kids in after-school programs
- Volunteering in soup kitchens and serving meals to the homeless
- Spending time with the displaced and disenfranchised in city parks
- Partnering with local churches to share Christ in their communities
- Adventure Day: take a boat ride by the Statue of Liberty, see the Empire State Building, explore Ground Zero, Chinatown, Central Park, the Brooklyn Bridge, Times Square and Rockefeller Plaza.
